

Amyris Announces Non-Dilutive $36 Million Term Loan to Pay Off Stegodon and Other Short-Term Debt Maturities

EMERYVILLE, Calif., July 02, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amyris, Inc. (Nasdaq:AMRS), a leader in the development and production of sustainable ingredients for the Health & Wellness, Clean Beauty and Flavors & Fragrances markets, announces that it has closed on a $36 million term loan with Great American Capital Partners, LLC ("GACP"), a subsidiary of B. Riley Capital Management, LLC, an SEC Registered Investment Advisor and wholly-owned subsidiary of B. Riley Financial, Inc.

Cash from the term loan will be used to pay off the company's Stegodon and other short-term debt maturities. The term loan also includes an additional $35 million accordion credit facility that provides Amyris with another option for financing construction of its production facility, if necessary.

"We are pleased with the support GACP has provided in enabling us to resolve our near-term debt, and we now have no other significant debt issues to resolve through the rest of the year," said John Melo, President and CEO of Amyris. "This has provided Amyris the flexibility and time needed to further execute our business initiatives, including resolving other debt and improving our capital structure when the timing and economics are more advantageous."

"Our industry experience combined with our ability to develop a flexible financing strategy enables us to help companies like Amyris continue to focus and pursue growth opportunities for their business," said John Ahn, President of GACP. "We are very pleased to have been selected by Amyris and play an important role in their continued growth and success."

B. Riley FBR, Inc, a full service investment bank and an affiliate of GACP, sourced and advised Amyris on the transaction.

Terms of the loan and the related agreement are more fully disclosed in the Form 8-K filed today with the Securities and Exchange Commission, available free of charge at sec.gov.
