

Amyris Hosts Successful First Session Of Its Virtual Investor Mini-Series

EMERYVILLE, Calif., Dec. 16, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Amyris, Inc. (Nasdaq: AMRS), a leading synthetic biotechnology company active in the Clean Health and Beauty markets through its consumer brands, and a top supplier of sustainable and natural ingredients, successfully hosted the first session of its virtual investor mini-series themed "Delivering on the Promise of Synthetic Biology."

This first session entitled Science and Technology, Sustainable Solutions for a Healthier Planet was conducted via live webcast and teleconference yesterday, Tuesday, December 15, 2020 at 1:00pm ET (10:00 am PT). The session included a business update, a technology presentation and Q&A.

The webinar was well-attended with nearly 300 people participating. Speaking on behalf of Amyris during the event were John Melo, President and Chief Executive Officer; Han Kieftenbeld, Chief Financial Officer, and; Sunil Chandran, Senior Vice President, Research and Development.

Mr. Melo provided an update on strategic transactions in the pipeline, a review of the company's portfolio and color commentary regarding the "road ahead" for Amyris. Dr. Chandran followed with an in-depth overview of the power of Amyris' technology platform, its proprietary Lab-to-Market operating system using Genotype Specification Language, and the ability to use machine-learning to design, scale and commercialize molecules at an accelerated rate. The session concluded with an interactive Q&A session.

Presentation materials, a full transcript and a replay of the first virtual investor mini-series are available in the investor relations section of Amyris's website at <http://investors.amyris.com>.

Amyris plans to hold its second session of the investor mini-series that focuses on its Consumer portfolio during the first quarter of 2021, followed by a third session that highlights its Ingredients portfolio. Advance notice of the dates and times of those sessions will be provided.
